

LIFELONG JEWISH LEARNING AT SINAI
LIMMUD LA-AD  לימוד לעד

Guest Speaker

Ilona Shechter

*"How to Talk to Your Children
About the Holocaust"*

Part of a speaker series on discussing difficult topics with your children through a Jewish lens. Future topics to include but not limited to sex & dating, and conversations to have before your child goes to college.

Sunday, October 28, 2018

10 to 11:30am in the Mirkin Chapel

Congregation Sinai, 1532 Willowbrae Ave, San Jose, CA 95125

All community members welcome. Free. No RSVP necessary.

Light refreshments will be served.

Ilona Shechter is a Museum Teacher Fellow at USHMM and an alumna of the International School of Holocaust Studies at Yad Vashem. She has traveled to Germany and Poland and studied at the sites of former concentration and extermination camps.

After retiring from teaching middle school Judaic classes at Gideon Hausner Jewish Day School, Ilona now teaches 7th grade and Hebrew for Sinai Religious School. Often a presenter at CAJE and NewCAJE teacher conferences, Ilona is a well sought after Holocaust and Israel educator and speaker.

